The American Board of Forensic Psychology (ABFP)
A Member Board of The American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP), Inc.

BYLAWS

Chapter 1

Name

The name and title by which this organization shall be known is the American Board of Forensic Psychology (ABFP) (also referred to as “the Organization”). ABFP is affiliated with the American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP) (also referred to as “the Corporation”) as a Member Specialty Board, with representation through a Board of Trustees (BOT). These Bylaws are consistent with those of ABPP, and ABFP has signed the Articles of Agreement between ABPP and ABFP (January 17, 2007) in accord with the ABPP Affiliations Manual.

Purposes and Goals

To serve the public and the profession by ensuring that psychologists certified by ABPP in forensic psychology have completed and maintain the education, training, experience, and standard ethical requirements of this specialty. These requirements include an examination designed to assess the competencies required to provide quality forensic psychology services and routine demonstration that these competencies and ethical standards are maintained.

The mission of ABFP, a non-profit corporation under the law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, is to protect the consumers of forensic psychology services. It shall do this by:

a. establishing, promoting, and revising, as necessary, standards and qualifications for those who practice forensic psychology;
b. certifying as ABFP Specialists those voluntary applicants who qualify under the standards established by the ABFP Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as “Board”); and
c. identifying for the public, psychologists who have demonstrated an advanced level of competency in forensic psychology practice

The Board shall review its mission no less than every 3 years at a regularly scheduled board meeting. It may revise its mission as long as the revision advances forensic psychology as a profession and promotes activities for a non-profit entity under the United States Tax Code.
ABFP is recognized as a Specialty Board among the other Specialty Boards that comprise ABPP. Therefore, ABFP shall abide by the rules and policies of ABPP as they exist now or as they are promulgated in the future.

ABFP may choose to exist independently of ABPP based upon a finding that its goals and objectives will be more readily advanced by emancipation from ABPP. To withdraw, consent from at least three-fourths of all ABFP Specialists is required.
